John,

I have been running this down, but we cannot get a hold of Deb. I don't think she will respond to us in time.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Take care,

Mark

Mark,

Just a follow-up to my voice mail. We are starting to run out of time regarding the Hopkins Declaration. If she is unable or unwilling to sign this declaration, we need to re-work the petition to indicate that. Please advise at your earliest convenience the likelihood of her executing the Declaration.

Best,

John

Mark,

Good morning. Did you have any luck getting Deb to sign the proposed declaration? As you know, today is the final day to file this response.

Regards,

John

Mark,

Thanks for the update. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to assist with Deb executing the Declaration. Regarding your supplemental statement about the docketing of the maintenance fees, we do not need that as June Kaps can attest that she docketed these fees. She is perhaps a more viable person, as she was the docketing clerk at the relevant time. It would be helpful on my end to have the finalized proposed declaration that Hopkins hopefully signs. Thank you for your effort on this matter.

Best,

John

Hi John,

I know the final date is Monday. We are attempting to track down Deb and have her review and agree to execute the Declaration. As soon as I know more, I will let you know.

Thanks,

Mark,

As a follow up to my email of this morning, I just wanted to remind you that this petition has to be filed by Monday at the very latest without any right to an extension under 37 CFR 1.136 (a), as the Examiner noted in his decision that was previously sent to you. Could you please let me know the status of the Hopkins declaration.

Regards,

John

Mark,

Just a follow up to my voice mail this morning regarding the Hopkins declaration. I'm drafting the petition today and would like to include the Hopkins declaration in our argument. Any chance for a successful petition will include her declaration.

Best,

John

Just following up on my voice mail of today, as you know we are under a tight deadline on filing a response to the Examiner's latest action. It would be helpful to have Deb Hopkins' declaration and your short supplemental declaration within the next day or two as we need to respond by Monday at the very latest.

Hi John,

I spoke with Bill Dolan and we would need to see a draft affidavit from Deb. We can't promise whether she will say yes, but it's worth a try.

Best,

Mark

Mark,

We got this decision while I was away on business. The Examiner, as you will see, is still looking for more information (i.e., statement from Deb Hopkins). We should talk next week when you have a chance.

Best,

John
